MINIMESTER ACADEMIC POLICY

- Students may enroll in up to nine (9) credit hours during the Winter Minimester [winter break academic session].
- Courses taken during the Winter Minimester [winter break academic session] are part of the Spring Semester course load. Students may enroll in up to 16 TOTAL credit hours during the minimester and spring without incurring an additional fee. Courses beyond 16 are considered overload and students must pay the overload rate [currently $552 per credit hour] above 16.
- The University Bulletin defines load and maximum load for students based on classification and grade point average. Students who enroll in courses during the minimester may take up to 6 hours total above maximum load as described in the Bulletin [see table below]. This includes a maximum academic load in the spring semester and the hours students take during the minimester.
- Students who wish to exceed minimester plus maximum Spring Semester load must complete an Academic Request Form.
- All other policies stand.
